

The Weekly Whim | Block4: A Turning Tide

Welcome to The Weekly Whim, a weekly quilt block series stitched one block at a time with scraps, stories, and a gentle focus on becoming.

Today's block is called A Turning Tide. Like the sea shifting from ebb to flow, this block reminds us that change can be both steady and beautiful. Each fabric, no matter how small, plays its part in creating a sense of motion and renewal. It's a scrappy swirl of hope – proof that with just a gentle turn, everything can look a little brighter. And as always - perfection is the beacon, but the joy is in the journey. 🧡

My Standard Note About Fabric Choices

In this series, I lean into building a scrappy quilt one block at a time. The more fabrics you use (within reason), the more variety you'll have to scatter across future blocks, which helps the finished quilt feel cohesive and "sensical." That said, using fewer fabrics is perfectly acceptable too – choose the balance that feels right for you.

Cutting Instructions (for one block):
