

The Weekly Whim | Block 6: A Woodland Crossing

Welcome to The Weekly Whim, a weekly quilt block series stitched one block at a time with scraps, stories, and a gentle focus on becoming.

Today's Block 6, with its strong diagonal layout, creates the feeling of paths intersecting in the forest. Along the way, it introduces the valuable skill of joining triangles to squares to form new triangles – a simple yet powerful technique that expands your quilting toolbox. Both steady in design and rich with movement, this block is a reminder that growth often happens where paths meet

My Standard Note About Fabric Choices

In this series, I lean into building a scrappy quilt one block at a time. The more fabrics you use (within reason), the more variety you'll have to scatter across future blocks, which helps the finished quilt feel cohesive and "sensical." That said, using fewer fabrics is perfectly acceptable too – choose the balance that feels right for you.

Cutting Instructions (for one block):

- A: (4) - 4" squares
- B: (4) - 3 1/2" squares
- C: (4) - 3 3/8" squares
- D: (4) - 3 3/8" squares
- E: (1) - 3 3/8" squares
