

The Weekly Whim | Block 19: A Home We've Built

Welcome to The Weekly Whim, a weekly quilt block series stitched one block at a time with scraps, stories, and a gentle focus on becoming.

A Home We've Built is our final block, and it marks a meaningful milestone in our quilt journey. Each block along the way has contributed to something steady and shared, and together they now form the foundation of a quilt and a community that continues to grow.

While this is the last individual block, our journey isn't finished yet. In the coming episodes, we'll begin assembling the quilt, bringing these pieces together in new ways as we move forward together.

Thank you for building this home with me. I'm glad you're here.

My Standard Note About Fabric Choices

In this series, I lean into building a scrappy quilt one block at a time. The more fabrics you use (within reason), the more variety you'll have to scatter across future blocks, which helps the finished quilt feel cohesive and "sensical." That said, using fewer fabrics is perfectly acceptable too — choose the balance that feels right for you.

Cutting Instructions (for one block):

- A: (2) - 6 ¼" squares
- B: (2) - 6 ¼" squares
- C: (1) - 11 ¼" square
- D: (4) - 5 ½" squares
- E: (1) - 10 ½" square
