

The Weekly Whim | Quilt Assembly - Part 2

Welcome to The Weekly Whim, a weekly quilt block series stitched one block at a time with scraps, stories, and a gentle focus on becoming. Are you ready to finish our quilt top assembly? I'll be walking you through, step by step, as we add sashing strips in certain places and filler squares in others, as we create the overall RIGHT half of our quilt top and finally - join it with last week's LEFT side.

Of Note: In the event that like me, you're using a variety of different scrappy backgrounds - it's perfectly okay to wait to cut as you watch the video and I help you lay out where everything is going to go, for your ability to select. That's the best thing about YouTube: You can always pause to choose and cut your strip, or rewind if needed as well.

The Weekly Whim | Finished Quilt Layout

60" x 60" finished

Friends, we did it! Our quilt top is complete. You'll need $\frac{1}{2}$ " yard for binding, cut into (7) $2\frac{1}{2}$ " strips joined end to end. Any one of the fabrics in your quilt will do, or you could even mix it up with something new if you're feeling brave! For those who'd like a bit of guidance with how I bind my quilts, stay tuned for next week. I'll show you how! PLEASE share your finished quilts with me! You can post at our A Scappy Little Joy Facebook group, send me an email at pam@pamselkirkdesigns.com, or tag me on Instagram @serendipitywoods #theweeklywhim #ascrappylittlejoy

NEXT UP for the Weekly Whim - a whole new quilt called Around the Campfire. I hope you'll stay tuned for updates and above all else - you'll plan to join me. It just wouldn't be the same without you!
